MEMORANDUM TO COUNSEL

The court has under advisement various motions in limine relating to the effect of the Crawford case. Assuming I reach the “excited utterance” issue as a hearsay rule exception it would be useful, perhaps necessary, to have an affidavit from a police officer or other witness on this subject. As soon as there is a filing by the Government, defense counsel should advise if and when a reply will be filed.

A ruling early next week would doubtless be useful to counsel.
